MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

SUBJECT: Senior Planning Conference After Actions (U)

1. (U) I have circulated the time sensitive issues raised at the 11-12 December conference and highlighted in your 22 December 1983 memorandum.

2. (S) Perhaps we may want to recast the item on "Prioritizing Intelligence Commitments." I recall our reaching a consensus to devise a collegial attack on community redundancies, whether they be in agency responsibilities, system coverage or discipline contributions. The current wording seems to allow each community manager to make planning and resource decisions in isolation. Consequently, even though each of us may reduce redundancy within his own purview, interagency overlap could remain. This results in less critical, but still important, targets falling below the line.

3. (U) We stand ready to assist in resolving the issues you identified for immediate action and are prepared to work with the Intelligence Community Staff toward that end.
